In no more than 750 words, provide a brief summary of your research objective and conclusions, in language a general audience could understand. Then reflect on your experience, using these questions to help you brainstorm!

- How did you identify your research area? What motivated you?
- What did you expect the capstone to be like and what was it really like?
- What was challenging? What was easy? What aspects surprised you?
- How might you further/expand your research on this specific topic/area?
- What are you taking away from this research experience?
